PIONEER DIED IN TENNESSEE

Thomas S. Hall Succumbed Early
This Morning at Age of Seventy-Six Years.

BODY WILL ARRIVE TOMORROW

Last of a Family of Nine Children—
Uncle of Lieut. Gov. Hall—
Born on Old Homestead.

Thomas S. Hall died at his home in Shelbyville, Tennessee, at an early hour this morning at the ripe old age of seventy-six years. Word was received by the relatives in this county this morning of his death and arrangements were made to ship the body immediately, so that it will arrive here tomorrow evening.

Thomas Hall was born in this county in October, 1832 at the old Hall homestead near Raleigh. He was one of the oldest pioneers in Rush county, and resided here until fifteen years ago, when he moved to Tennessee, where he had lived until his death. His death was due to a complication of diseases incident to old age. He had been in poor health for over forty years due to a cancerous growth, but he was thought to be recovering from that ailment when death came.

The deceased is the last of that generation of the Hall family. There were nine children in the family, all of whom are now dead. He was an uncle of Lieutenant Governor Frank J. Hall of this city; R. J. Hall, living north of this city and Mrs. Del Miles of near Raleigh. Two sons, Alfred of this county, and Edward of Shelbyville, Tenn., and five grandchildren survive the deceased.

The funeral services will be conducted from the home of Mrs. Del Miles, near Raleigh, Thursday morning.

YOU TALK ABOUT GOING SOME--LOOK

Not Only Look, But Stop, Look and Listen to This Tale From Connersville.

FACTORY OCTUPLED CAPITAL

While we are going to make coffins—maybe—Connersville will continue in the body making business. Not human bodies do we speak of now, but automobile bodies. About one year ago Capitalist Ansted (he came to Rushville once intending to locate here) organized what was known as the Central Manufacturing company. Their chief output was motor car bodies. So great has the business grown that yesterday it became necessary to increase the capital stock from $100,000 to $800,000. Think of that! Wow!

BLACK NEEDLE IN HER FINGER

Young Girl Met With Painful Accident While Washing Clothes.

While washing clothes Monday morning, the eighteen-year-old daughter of Clifton Wiley, living southeast of this city, ran a black headed pin in the index finger of her right hand. The head of the pin broke off and Dr. Parsons was summoned to cut out the remaining part.

GOOD OLD SUMMER TIME

It Came Yesterday—Welcome to
Our City.

When the poet asked "What is so rare as a day in June," he probably did not refer to June 21, 1909, unless he meant "rare" in the sense of akin to raw. Yesterday was not only the first day of summer, but the longest day of the year. The sun was farthest north in its journey yesterday, but it wasn't a very nice day. Welcome to our city, Good Old Summer Time, we're glad to see you; been missing you since last December.

BEAMING BABY AT H' ABBERLEY 'OME

Nine Pound Girl Arrived This Morning and Joined Her Two Sisters.

LITTLE MINISTER IS 'APPY

It's a girl! Nine pounds—not English money, but American avoirdupois—at the Abberley home in North Main street. The aeroplane stork arrived at an early hour this morning and left the sunbeam from heaven. And Rev. Abberley is deucedly happy about the beaming, blooming, bouncing bawling baby cherub, doncherknow—eh wat? This makes three girls for the Abberley home and maybe the popular minister will never know the ordeal of rearing a boy against the fallacious "minister's son" tradition. At least the family group has that appearance "at this writing."

FRAZEE OUT ON RURAL ROUTES

Progressive Postmaster is "Going the Route" to Personally
Inspect Them.

ABOUT THOSE RURAL BOXES

Some Farmers Had the Wrong Idea
About the Carriers' Position in the Case.

A number of Rush county farmers are discussing—yes, and some there are who are criticizing—the recent order of the postmaster general with reference to removing and replacing rural mail boxes along the route. Some of the rural patrons are given to criticizing the mail carriers in some instances, and this is a gross injustice. The order came in a regular way, as all other orders come, and the rural route carriers were obliged under penalty of being discharged, to report all mail boxes in a bad condition and not properly stationed along the highway. In effect the order reads that all mail boxes must be along the highway in easy access of the mail carrier who drives along in his vehicle, that he may deposit the mail without having to go out of his way and that speedy delivery will thus result for all patrons. Another thing, the order was issued that a uniformity of place for mail boxes might be established. Hundreds of farmers made the change without a word, but some were prone to take the opportunity to say a few unkind and uncalled for words against their carrier and the department.

Department Postmaster Charles A. Frazee, who is about the liveliest postmaster and one of the best all around officials we ever had in this county, is going over all the rural routes out of the Rushville office and is personally looking after a number of things of interest to the department concerning the carrier, patrons and postmaster. Mr. Frazee has covered about half of the routes and will take in the others as soon as possible. He knows a world of people over the county and from the field and houses comes the welcome: "Hello there Charley—glad to see you."

This from most every farm along the line.

CLIFFORD OUT OF THE CITY

Harry Clifford of the firm of Reynolds & Clifford, who are considering the establishment of a coffin and porch furniture factory in the old Sterling Buggy Company building, is out of the city at present and nothing definite will be done with the undertaking for the next few days. The promoters are very enthusiastic about the project and feel that it will be a success.

LOCAL MEN ON MURDER JURY

Ten of the Twelve Men Chosen Hail
From Rush County—Completed
This Morning.

SENT FOR A SECOND BATCH

For a Time it Seemed as if a Jury
Was an Utter Impossibility.

THE WILSON JURY.

For the Wilson murder case jury in the Fayette circuit court, which was sworn in at ten o'clock this morning, ten of the jurymen were Rush county men. Following is a list of the jurymen:

- Marshall Hinchman, Union township.
- F. R. Mahan, Rushville township.
- Lot Holman, Noble township.
- H. E. Daubenspeck, Union township.
- Albert L. Winship, Rushville township.
- Demp Norris, Noble township.
- Henry W. Schrader, Jackson township.
- E. E. Morris, Noble township.
- Allen W. Newsom, Ripley township.
- Earl M. Tweedy, Posey township.
- J. E. Caldwell, Fayette county.
- Lewis Matney, Fayette county.

About the making up of the Wilson murder case jury, the Connersville Examiner says:

There has never been a time in the history of Fayette county when it has been so hard to get a jury to hear a case in the circuit court as it has been to obtain twelve men satisfactory to both the State and the defense to hear the case of John Wilson, charged with the murder of his wife.

The men from Rush county sent over by Judge Sparks to be examined as to their qualifications to sit as jurors in the case, arrived Monday morning and were in the court room when court convened at nine o'clock. Only twenty-one of the men were examined. Judge Gray excused two and two were unable to come on account of sickness.

After these twenty-one men were examined both sides were not satisfied and court was adjourned until four o'clock Monday afternoon while talismen were being subpoenaed.

Both sides are very particular. Prosecutor Wiles wants to be sure that he has a jury of twelve men who are not afraid to inflict the death penalty, if he proves a case that justifies it. On the other hand, Mr. Ruffin is particular that every juror shall understand that he enters the case knowing that the law provides that the State must prove the defendant guilty beyond a reasonable doubt before he can be convicted.

Court adjourned a few minutes before noon and Sheriff Miller took a trolley car for Rush county with the intention of picking up ten or more talismen along the interurban. It is thought that with ten more the jury could be filled.

Once the jury is obtained it is not believed that it will take long to hear the case. The evidence will be practically the same as introduced at the first trial, and each side will have the advantage of knowing what is coming and they will also know the weaker points of their opposition and where to make the most effective attack.

Six of the last ten jurors arrived at 3:18 and court reconvened immediately. It required about thirty minutes to exhaue this bunch without filling the jury.

Court then adjourned until nine o'clock Tuesday morning. Sheriff Miller, who had been working since noon in the Glenwood neighborhood, looking for jurors, was telephoned to have another half dozen men in court Tuesday morning.

There was a rumor Monday afternoon to the effect that Wilson's boots which have been missing since the day of the murder had been found in Williams creek. Prosecutor Wiles was asked if he knew anything about the matter and he said nothing of the kind had been reported to him.

UGHT TO BRING ABE MARTIN HERE

The Chautauqua Program Committee
Would do Well to Engage the Hoosier Philosopher.

NEED OF A VARIED PROGRAM

A suggestion to the program committee of the Chautauqua: Why not get Kin Hubbard, the creator of "Abe Martin," Hoosier philosopher and humorist, here for a chalk talk. There is a world of people who read Abe every day and would drive miles to see and hear his sponsor. High salaried lecturers who deliver a classic theme in a masterly manner are always good to hear but if they have not made a name in accomplishing something, they have not the magnetic power of attracting large audiences. You know Jim Jeffries gets about $800 weekly for ten minutes talk in vaudeville twice a day, and Jack Binns, the hero of the Republic, was offered $1500 for a similar stunt. Keep this in mind and give us a spicy and varied program.

SONS OF HAM WILL TROD THE BOARDS

"Brother Josiah" Will be Witnessed
by a Packed House Here
Tonight.

GO EARLY FOR A GOOD SEAT

You can depend on one good time if you attend the rural comedy, "Brother Josiah" to be given by the members of the Second M. E. church tonight in the old Guffin room. A stage has been fitted up and every convenience is offered for the audience's comfort. A Daily Republican man witnessed a dress rehearsal of the show last night and was surprised to find such talented people among the colored folks. Some of the parts will equal, if not outdistance the work of any amateurs in the city. Fred Herdspath and Miss Cora Smith have the leading roles, but the remainder of the cast will be found adequate in every particular. A packed house is assured and the S. R. O. sign will go up early.

The Japanese government is waging a successful war on rats by paying for every dead one brought in, and giving each rat slayer a ticket to a lottery with valuable prizes.

THE WEATHER

Partly cloudy with local thunderstorms tonight or Wednesday. Continued warm.

Rushville is going to boom.

VALUED ASSET TO RUSHVILLE

Is the New Loan and Trust Company
Organized by the Local Capitalists.

KEEP BUSINESS AT HOME

Investors, Borrowers and Money Men
Will All be Mutually Benefited
—Will Help the City.

Those who are acquainted with conditions here, are high in their praise of the fact that enough men could be found, men of the progressive school, to organize an adequate trust and loan company. The People's Loan and Trust company, organized yesterday will prove beneficial to Rushville in more ways than one. Not only will the men who are responsible for the new company reap the benefits that they are entitled to, but the merchants, and in fact, the entire city will profit in this new undertaking. Most of the neighboring cities have trust companies and the business from here that found its way to other points will now be directed in home channels and not only be kept at home, but will keep local investors at home. And all will be better off in the end.

Another thing, the new company will stimulate building in this city, and no doubt many ventures and hard-headed and legitimate schemes and deals conducive for the best interest of the community will float out from this new found head of finance.

FORMER RESIDENT DEAD AT MARION

Deceased was the eldest son of a large family of eleven children, four of whom are still living.

He is survived by one brother, W. R. Hunt, of Treaty, Ind., and three sisters, Mrs. Naomi Hilligoss of Anderson; Mrs. William P. Stiers of Center township, and Mrs. L. B. Downey of this city.

THE AMERICAN TOBACCO COMPANY

ARRESTED ON A WESTERN TRAIN

Chinaman Thought to Be Leon Ling Held on Suspicion.

WAS BOUND FOR VANCOUVER

On a West-Bound Canadian Pacific Train Was a Chinese Who Answered the Description of the Supposed Murderer of Elsie Sigel—Several Other Chinese Have Been Held in Various Parts of the Country On Suspicion in Connection With Shocking Case.

Vancouver, B. C., June 22.—A Chinaman answering the description of Leon Ling, supposed murderer of Elsie Sigel, was taken from a west-bound Canadian Pacific train at Revelstoke, B. C.

New York, June 22.—After a bit of police flurry, an hour or two of unverified reports and telephoning between cities, the murder of Elsie Sigel, daughter of Paul Sigel of this city, and grand daughter of Major Gen. Franz Sigel of civil war fame, again resolved itself into unsolved crime.

Chung Sing, who formerly occupied a room adjoining that where the girl's body was found, is held by the police at the little up-state city of Amsterdam, N. Y., but what has been learned from him has served to clear up the case little if any. At Schenectady the Chinaman arrested, at first thought to be Leon Ling, or William H. Leon, who is sought as the girl's murderer, has, according to all indications, pretty well established that he is an unoffending Celestial, who formerly worked in a restaurant in New York, and whose arrest was brought about merely through a strikingly unfortunate resemblance to Leon Ling.

The disappearance of Chung Sing about the time the murder was discovered here made the police eager for his apprehension, which was considered second in importance to that of Leon, but the interview with him at Amsterdam seems to have brought out nothing of value to the authorities. He maintains that he rarely associated with Leon, and while acquainted with Elsie Sigel, knows nothing of the murder. Thus, his arrest is of no great import and the case is about where it was when Elsie Sigel's body was found in the trunk in a room over the Eighth avenue chop suey restaurant last Friday night.

HELD AT MISHAWAKA

Chinaman Arrested as a Possible Suspect in Sigel Case.

South Bend, Ind., June 22.—A Chinaman giving the name of George Lee Kin was arrested at Mishawaka on advices from the Chicago police, who stated he was wanted in connection with the murder of Elsie Sigel in New York. The Chinaman, it is said, bears a close resemblance to pictures of Chung Sing, one of the men being sought.

LYNCHING THREATENED

The People of Little Rock Seeking Assailant of Young Woman.

Little Rock, Ark., June 20.—Little Rock and its suburbs are being searched for an unidentified white man who, it is said, beat into insensibility and assaulted a young woman in an office building in the most central section of the business district of Little Rock, and should he be captured, it is probable that a lynching will be attempted.

According to the statement of the young woman, Ray Burkhalter, of Pine Bluff, Ark., student at a local business college, she was called to the office building with a promise that she would be given clerical employment. When she reached the office she was met by a young man and told to wait for the supposed employer. While she was waiting, she declares that he man overpowered her, beat her and choked her into unconsciousness and assaulted her after she was bound and gagged to prevent an outcry.

The young woman freed herself and summoned assistance. Her face and neck are badly bruised and her condition is considered as serious.

Negro Shoots Postmistress.

Springfield, Ill., June 22.—Miss Laura Yowell, postmistress at Greenridge, Macoupin county, lies at the point of death with a bullet in her left lung. A negro entered her home and seized her. Her sister was rushing to the rescue when the negro shot the postmistress and then fled, but was later arrested at Carlinville. Lynching is threatened. The negro gives the name of Hezekiah Marshall.

Edward Everett Hale.

Some spirits of this world are born to drive. They do not know nor do they care to learn. The gentler means that win. Their natures spurn. The noble kindness that keeps alive. The better part of man wherein survive. The human sympathies which always yearn. For those who need direction most and turn. Unerringly to those too weak to strive. No driver was the spirit of this man. His force of arms, his power in grand display. No poet in resounding verses sings. His glory is not measured by a span. So Does Catarrh, Croup, Hay Fever and Bronchitis.

Hyomei is a confidence creator. The first time you breathe in this powerful yet soothing, antiseptic air, you will know that it has marvelous curative virtues. There is nothing disagreeable about Hyomei. It is a very pleasant and prompt remedy for catarrh, colds, asthma, croup, bronchitis, etc.

If your head is so stuffed with mucus that you cannot breathe a particle of air through your nostrils, Hyomei will open them up and give relief in five minutes.

Why will sensible people suffer longer, why will they wheeze and hawk and spit and smother, when F. B. Johnson & Co. will guarantee Hyomei to cure or money back. $1.00 is all F. B. Johnson & Co., asks for a complete outfit.

"I have used Hyomei for hay fever, and can pronounce it the best relief for this trouble that I ever tried or heard of. I have had this malady for years, and have doctored and used many remedies, but Hyomei is far ahead of any of the others, and has my hearty endorsement."—Mrs. M. S. F. E. WOLCOTT SUCCESSFUL

After a great deal of effort and correspondence F. E. Wolcott, the popular druggist, has succeeded in getting the Dr. Howard Co. to make a special half-price introductory offer on the regular fifty cent size of their celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia.

This medicine is a recent discovery for the cure of all diseases of the stomach and bowels. It not only gives quick relief, but it makes permanent cures.

Dr. Howard's specific has been so remarkably successful in curing constipation, dyspepsia and all liver troubles, that F. E. Wolcott is willing to return the price paid in every case where it does not give relief.

So great is the demand for this specific that F. E. Wolcott has been able to secure only a limited supply and every one who is troubled with dyspepsia, constipation or liver trouble should call upon him at once or send 25 cents and get sixty doses of the best medicine ever made, on this special half price offer with his personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure.

Mental Health Rules

Fundamentals Underlying All Mental Healing Methods, that Can be Employed by Anybody

In his book on "The Law of Mental Medicine," the late Thomas Jay Hudson laid down a set of rules which he recommended to all who would employ suggestion as a prophylactic, or preventive of disease. The rules can be used by anybody regardless of religious or social affiliations, "and since there is no cost connected with it, they can be made use of by the poor as well as the rich. They are sensible, universally and readily applicable and easily recommended: Avoid all suggestions from extraneous sources which are adverse to health.

If such suggestions are forced upon you meet them with counter suggestions affirmative of your own immunity from the suggested disease.

Finally meet the first symptom of disease with a vigorous and persistent auto-suggestion of your immunity from disease or of your ability to throw it off. When you go to bed at night direct your subjective mind to employ itself during your sleep in restoring normal conditions, strongly affirming its ability to do so, and when you rise in the morning assume the attitude in mind and body of restored health and vigor.

Allow no conversation at the table adverse to the quality of the food set before you, especially as to its supposed digestibility.

Talk hopefully to the chronic invalid for his sake and for your own sake when you leave him. Thank God that you are immune from his disease.

Think health and talk health on all suitable occasions, remembering that under the law of suggestion health may be contagious as well as disease.

A Funny Story

In this country there are some two hundred million dollars invested in theatrical property. Each year something like two hundred new productions are made, averaging in cost from five to one hundred thousand dollars each. After the productions are made, it costs from two hundred to one thousand dollars a night to present the play.

Knowing personally most of the men who present these plays, I can assure you that the majority of them think no more of a dollar than of a right eye or any only child; and nothing resembling a habit of spending money or something they do not believe the public will pay money to see, belongs to any of them.

Moreover, knowing playwrights, stage managers, and a good many of the best actors, I assure you they are doing the best they can. They realize the seriousness of their work, and it is with infinite toil and with fear and trembling that they approach the stage. And this is the difference between them and the critics.

No one knows when the following dialogue first took place in a newspaper office. That it took place once I know, for I heard it. I was there.

The city editor called a reporter to his desk.

City Editor: "Where can you find a funny story?"

Reporter (after a moment's thought): "There are a lot of openings tonight. Give me some tickets to a show."

And the city editor saw the point, knew he was on perfectly safe ground, and gave the tickets. The story was funny. It ridiculed a structure that cost something like $40,000. It probably reached, say, one in five of the circulation of 500,000 persons—and people are more or less influenced by what they read.

So the next morning 100,000 people were prejudiced, to a greater or less degree, by unconsciously accepting the word of a reporter who had not been sent to review the play as an expert, in order that those who bought the paper might be expertly advised as to how they could get the best for their money in a theater. They were prejudiced by the review of a funny man, who was to return with a funny story if it robbed one man of a fortune, another of the work of months, and help up to ridicule a company of players whose life work is to give to the public some enjoyment, and who get for their work less money, less home, less happiness than any other people on earth.—Paul Armstrong, in the July Everybody's.

INDIANA POLITICS

By Robert G. Tucker.

Indianapolis, June 22.—Charles Eckhart, a leading Prohibitionist of Indiana who lives at Auburn and who a few years ago was a candidate for governor on the Prohibitionist state ticket, was here today. Mr. Eckhart said that he was opposed to county local option. "Of course," he said, "we all vote with the 'dry' side when these elections take place, because it is good to put a saloon out of business at any time. While we vote with the local optionists we are not in favor of it, because we do not believe that it will bring about the results which we are fighting for. We have striven for years to get our men in the state legislature, and will make the same earnest attempt in the next two years to elect some of our party to the general assembly. The way the sentiment is growing, it is only a question of time when we will have state-wide prohibition in Indiana. I can not say that the next legislature will bring this about, but the time is not far distant when we will have what we are fighting for in Indiana."

In the Anti-Saloon League leaders' table the "wet" counties without election are Allen, 252 saloons; Dearborn, 51; Dubois, 49; Knox, 75; Lake, 565; Marion, 725; Perry, 37; St. Joseph, 247; Vanderburg, 304; Vigo, 318. Total number of saloons where elections have not been held, 2,625. From Superintendent Shumaker's statement it is interesting to note that saloons have been closed in all the "wet" counties by remonstrance except in Vanderburg, which alone, of all Indiana counties, has withstood the attack of the Anti-Saloon League. In this county twenty-three saloons have been closed by remonstrance, while 141 have been put out by the same method in Knox. A recapitulation made by Superintendent Shumaker shows that there are now twenty-two "wet" counties out of a total of ninety-two. There are seventy counties that will be "dry" as soon as the saloons voted out, close their doors.

Dr. Harry C. Sharp, former surgeon at the Indiana Reformatory, has been appointed a member of the board of trustees of the reformatory by Governor Marshall. Dr. Sharp, who is a Republican, and who lives in Indianapolis, takes the place of William H. Hart, also a Republican. Dr. Sharp was surgeon at the institution for thirteen years.

NELSON-CLIFFORD

Lightweight Championship To Be Contested For Tonight. Oklahoma City, June 22.—Although

no one here believes that tonight's fight between Battling Nelson, champion lightweight of the world, and Jack Clifford will make the champion extend himself, he looks fit to fight hard for his title.

The fight is slated to last twenty rounds, but it will be a big surprise to the sports gathered here to see the contest if it goes the limit. Clifford has been training hard to get into condition. Nelson has also been here several days.

BREAK IN STOCK MARKET

Followed Rumors of the Death of E. H. Harriman.

New York, June 22.—Rumors that E. H. Harriman was critically ill in Vienna, and report that at times was exaggerated to the extent of saying he was dead, all met with prompt denial by his associates, and at the Union Pacific offices. But notwithstanding this, the reports, coupled with a sharp bear raid, caused a decided break in the stock market and the decline in the so-called Harriman stocks.

HURLED TO DEATH

Automobile Was Struck by an Express Train at a Crossing.

Camden, N. J., June 22.—Hurled 100 feet against a telegraph pole when an automobile in which he and William Wyand were riding was struck by an Atlantic City express at a crossing of the West Jersey and Seashore railroad, Glenn H. Dobbs, forty-six years old, was instantly killed. The crossing is unprotected, save for a small electric bell, the taps of which were drowned out by the noise made by the automobile.

Farr Gave Himself Up.

Meadville, Mass., June 22.—Virgil Farr, who with W. L. Boyd, is alleged to have first fired upon Dr. A. M. Newman in the recent deadly street duel here, came into Hamburg, in this county and surrendered to the authorities.

Wheat Decline Checked.

Chicago, June 22.—The declining tendency of wheat was effectively checked and prices scored gains of more than 1c owing to the unfavorable weather for harvesting in the southwest, and to a "green bug" scare in the oats market.

Retired Army Officer In Trouble.

Washington, June 22.—The president has ordered a court-martial to meet at Denver July 6 for the trial of Lieut. Clarence S. Nettles, U. S. A., retired, living at Denver, on charges of financial irregularities.

LEAD MINE CAN BE FOUND NEAR HERE

It is Thought That the Ore Could be Taken Out in Paying Quantities.

CAN MAKE A "WAD" OF MONEY

A number of local dentists were bending over a large piece of paper on the show case at Hargrove & Mullin's store last evening. One was industriously figuring with a pencil which had been sharpened several times. The interest was intense. And what did it mean? Oh yes! They were discussing the tariff these days. (And the more they talk about it the less they know.) No the guess wasn't even "warm." There was a long pause as Dr. Sparks added up a big row of figures and then it all came out.

"What do you think of that, gentlemen," he exclaimed, "we fired nearly half a ton of shot at the gun shoot last week. To be more exact, it was nine hundred and sixty-seven pounds. There's a regular lead mine out there, boys."

Here's Where the Fun Comes In

From a crowd of rah-rah college boys celebrating a crew victory, a policeman had managed to extract two prisoners.

"What is the charge against these young men?" asked the magistrate before whom they were arraigned. "Disturbin' the peace, yer honor," said the policeman. "They were givin' their college yells in the street an' makin' trouble generally."

"What is your name?" the judge asked one of the prisoners.

"Ro-ro-robert Ro-ro-rollsins," stuttered the youth. "I asked for your name sir,—not the evidence."—Everybody's Magazine.

BY THE WAYSIDE

A graduate of an Eastern law school wrote to a prominent lawyer in Arkansas to find out what chance there would be for him in that part of the country.

"I am a Republican in politics," he wrote, "and an honest young lawyer."

"If you are an honest lawyer," came the reply, "you will have no competition, and if you are a Republican the game laws will protect you."

CONCERT WAS A TREAT.

The concert by the faculty of the Indianapolis Conservatory of Music at the Main Street Christian church last night attracted a crowd of several hundred people. A good sum of money was made which will be used for foreign missions.

SENT SOME PINEAPPLES.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Bailey of Circleville received today four pineapples from their son, Clifford Bailey of Honolulu, H. I. They were grown on the island of Hawaii and are extra fine samples, having been awarded premiums at London, England, and Seattle, Wash.

WOTCHERGOANDO WITH THAT NICKLE?

Gonaby Fire Crackers, Says the Little Boy, Smilingly Clinching the Money.

AND WE WELCOME NEW LAW

Small boys are saving all their extra pennies to buy fire crackers.

"Wotchergoando with that nickle, Tommy?"

"Aw, I'm gonaby firecrackers for Fourth of July."

Such are the expressions heard now and will be heard until the fifth of July. The season is at hand and the small boy is in his glory every penny he gets. The demand for small works is not so large as formerly and the fireworks that are put out are not so dangerous since the new laws regarding their use was put into effect. Much of the display goods have increased, but not enough to make up the difference. The last few days have seen packages of Chinese-labeled goods coming into the stores that handle them and they are being quickly put in sight to catch the pennies of the small boy and the dollars of the big men.

CHAPTER XIII.
THE LETTER.
AS Lady Creech and Hawcastle entered the garden, where Horace was still holding the hand of the fair countess, they encountered Almeric, who was strolling in aimlessly from the direction of the village. Hawcastle beckoned to him.
"Anything unusual down there?" he asked, pointing to the village.
"Rawther! Carabinieri still hunting that bandit chap," said his hopeful son languidly.
"Don't mumble your words!" snapped the old lady, and Horace and madame turned sharply and confusedly. Almeric made a gesture of impatience and, putting his head close to his respected aunt's ear, shouted:
"Hunting a bally bandit!" at which the old woman screamed sharply. Hawcastle took him by the shoulder.
"What do they say about him?" he demanded.
"That he is still in the neighborhood," replied his heir, with a languid sigh.
"What did I tell you?" asked Lady Creech triumphantly. And the earl made a gesture of impatience.
"Almeric, find your betrothed and bring her here," he said. And the young man trotted off slowly. Horace came slowly forward.
"What's the row, sir?" he asked, and the earl smiled.
"My dear young man," he said, "I congratulate you that you and your sister need no longer submit to an odious dictation."
He was about to say more, but at that moment Daniel came down the steps and walked across the grass to the motor. As he passed the group he smiled genially and observed:
"Looks to me as if it was going to clear up cold."
"Good afternoon, Mr. Pike," answered the earl and motioned the others to leave.
Pike merely nodded his head, and Hawcastle came up to him.
"It is a pity that there should have been any misunderstanding in the matter of your ward's betrothal," he said, and Pike smiled grimly.
"Oh, I wouldn't call it a misunderstanding," he said, and the earl went on.
"It would ill become a father to press upon the subject of his son's merits," he began, but Pike cut him short.
"I won't talk with you about him," he said. "I don't want to hurt your feelings."
Hawcastle glared at him and was about to reply when Mariano entered with a letter on a tray, which he handed to the lawyer, who regarded it curiously. There was a growing menace in the earl's attitude, and as his anger grew his suavity grew with it.
"There is another matter to which I want to call your attention," he went on, and Pike answered him at once.
"I'll talk about anything else with you," he replied and looked up to see Ethel coming down the steps. She came forward to the earl and said:
"You wished me to come here?"
"I wish to tell you that I see light breaking through the clouds. Have another talk with our friend here, and, believe me, all will be well."
With a bow he left the garden, and Ethel stood staring after him. Pike looked up quickly from the letter he was reading and crossed over to her.
"I'm glad you've come," he said. "I've got something here I want to read to you. When I got your letter at home I wrote to Jim Cooley, our vice consul in London, to look up those Hawcastle folks and write me here how they stand."
"You did that?" she cried in anger.
"You had the audacity to pry into the affairs of the Earl of Hawcastle!"
"Why, I'd 'a' done that if it'd been the governor of Indiana himself," he replied, with surprise. "Besides, Jim Cooley's 'home folks.' His office used to be right next door to mine in Kokomo. I haven't opened the letter yet, but I haven't much doubt but Jim'll have some statements in it that'll show you I'm right about these people."
"How do you know that?" she demanded heatedly.
"Because I've had experience enough of life!"
"In Kokomo?" she asked scornfully.
"Yes, ma'am," he answered. "There's just as many kinds of people in Kokomo as there is in Pekin, and I didn't serve a term in the legislature without learning to pick underhand men at sight. Now, that earl, let alone his having a bad eye—his ways are too much on the stripe of T. Cuthbert Bentley's to suit me. T. Cuthbert was a Chicago gentleman, with a fur lined overcoat that opened up a bank in our town, and when he caught the Canadian express three months later all he left in Kokomo was the sign on the front door. That was painted on. But, there, here's the letter. Read it for yourself."
He handed it to her and watched her while she broke the seal and then began to read:
"Dear Dan—The earldom of Hawcastle is one of the oldest in the kingdom, and the St. Aubyns have distinguished themselves in the forefront of English battles from Agincourt and Crecy to Sebastopol. The present holder of the title came into it by accident. He was a younger son's younger son and had spent some years in Russia in business under another name. Nothing here in his English record is seriously against him, though everything he has is mortgaged to the hilt."
She finished with a look of triumph.
"What a terrible indictment!" she said scornfully. "So that was what you counted on to convince me of my mistake? I shall tell Lord Hawcastle."

thing that sounded more like home—'Sweet Genevieve,' for instance. You know it, don't you?"
"I used to," she answered, hanging her head. "It's old fashioned and common, isn't it?"
"That's why I like it, I guess," he answered. "I couldn't get you to sing it for me before I go home, could I?"
She looked at him thoughtfully for a moment.
"I'm afraid not," she answered and went quickly into the hotel, leaving him looking after her curiously.

TEST RIDE FOR RACE HORSE.
Trip From New York to Chicago and Return to Show Endurance.
Starting from the Herald building in New York at 10 o'clock the other morning, mounted on the six-year-old thoroughbred Esteban, H. H. Weatherly set out on an interesting ride of 2,000 miles to the Chicago Record-Herald building in Chicago and return in a test of endurance, designed to demonstrate the fallacy of the statement that "the modern race horse off the track is good for nothing but food for the hounds."
A journey of this distance has never been accomplished, if it has been attempted, with a twentieth century thoroughbred in the United States, or any other, so far as known, and its progress will be followed eagerly by officials of the war department, the Jockey club and all interested in trying out the high mettled racer under conditions such as a cavalry horse would have to endure.
Esteban is a typical twentieth century racer, and if he can endure the test to which Mr. Weatherly purposes to put him the latter day thoroughbred will be vindicated. He is light chestnut or sorrel in color, sixteen hands high, rather long of leg and light of bone and at a casual glance does not give the impression of being a rugged horse. But Mr. Weatherly says he is a big feeder, always ready for his dinner and always ready for a gallop.
Esteban was bred at the famous Ranococas stud established by Pierre Lorillard at Jobstown, N. J., and was got by Locohatchie, a noted race horse and a son of Onondaga and Sophronia by Ten Broeck. The dam of Esteban was Flash, by Ventilator, grandam Molly Walton, by Mortemer, out of Florence (dam of Hindoo and grandam of Firenze), by Lexington. Esteban was trained and raced as a two-year-old and as a three-year-old ran creditably up to one mile.
No schedule was laid out for the 2,000 mile trip to Chicago and return, but the rider of the horse expects to make it in forty days, thus doing an average of fifty miles a day.
Mr. Weatherly is an experienced long distance rider. He was born in England, served in the British army with the Tenth hussars in 1882 and from 1880 to 1891 was corporal and sergeant in the northwest mounted police force of Canada.
Mr. Weatherly intends to feed, water and care for Esteban himself. He will ride about eight hours a day and will take advantage of soft earth roads whenever possible in order to keep his horse from becoming footsore. When macadam turnpikes are encountered he will take to the grass at the side of the road to avoid the hard footing.
Mr. Weatherly is about forty-five years of age. His weight is 132 pounds.

China's Warning.
In a recent speech Sir Robert Hart called attention to a remark made to him years ago by the Chinese prime minister, Wen Hsiang: "You had better let us sleep on. If you will awaken us we'll go farther and faster than you'll like."

SENATORIAL ORATORY
Various Styles Exhibited in the Tariff Debate.
DOLLIVER THE REAL ORATOR.
Iowa Statesman Well Able to Take Care of Himself in Rough and Tumble Debates—Senator Aldrich and His Imitator, Smoot—La Follette For High Tragedy.
There are as many styles of oratory in the United States senate as there are senators who declaim in that body, and all styles have been displayed in this tariff debate.
Senator Aldrich of Rhode Island himself has made one "set" speech since the tariff discussion began, but it did not savor of the oratorical. He is too full of facts and figures, too intent on the "short cut," to give vent to a rounded sentence which has been burnished so as to be worthy of preservation as an oratorical gem. Aside from his language, Senator Aldrich has a peculiar style, equally his own, of getting rid of what he has to say. He has so grown into the habit of knitting his brows that one of his friends who sat in the senate gallery the other day remarked, "Aldrich is rapidly losing his good looks." This faculty of frowning, combined with what Representative Bennet of New York has caused to be known in Washington as "Albany tactics" of debate, is among the main characteristics of Senator Aldrich's style. "Albany tactics," translated, means, "Never say anything you can't take back or deny." Senator Aldrich is hard to tie down.
When somebody else is speaking and says something with which the senator is in hearty accord he will nod his head vigorously. On the other hand, if he does not agree with the remarks of the speaker he will wag his head sideways, which is the signal for all the Aldrich camp to go into action. One of the really funny things of the tariff session is the effort of Senator Smoot of Utah to copy all of Senator Aldrich's mannerisms. He will lose his temper in debate and be as overbearing as Senator Aldrich if opportunity offers, and he will wag his head in unison with Senator Aldrich, always taking care, however, to see first which way Aldrich is wagging.
For high tragedy the senate looks unanimously to Senator La Follette of Wisconsin. In the course of his long speeches he will touch every chord of the human emotions. He needs a wide range of floor space on which to enact bodily what his mind is thinking and his voice is saying. He will stand erect and then sink his upper body below the level of the desk beside him while he raises one of the Dingley rates, figuratively speaking, from the floor to the ceiling in illustration of what he charges Senator Aldrich's committee with having done. Let Senator Gallinger, Smoot or Aldrich interrupt him, and he will stiffen, bend forward as far as his desk will let him and then, extending his arm full length, shake his fist in the senator's face while breathing words of defiance.
A close second to Senator La Follette in dramatic delivery is Senator Cummins of Iowa. The Iowan is not as strenuous in his delivery, but he has a halting method of speaking his words, usually stopping them in the middle, which, coupled with a high pitched tense voice and a certain grace of gesture, also robs him of some effectiveness in public speaking. Furthermore, the Iowan is not quite as thorough on facts and figures as Senator La Follette, but is as good as any when it comes to stating offhand the fundamental principles of tariff revision. As he becomes more and more at home in the senate he improves.
As a basis for a display of oratory Senator Beveridge of Indiana, who is noted for this accomplishment, has been lost in the tariff debate. He has taken the subject as a plain, matter of fact business proposition and refrained from displaying his powers of language. Instead, the senator has taken a new angle. After somebody else has let go of a high flown paragraph he will rise in his seat, reduce the proposition to plain English and remark, "That is my understanding of it."
The senator who has progressed farthest along the lines of real oratorical and debating ability is Senator Dolliver of Iowa. He has shown himself well able to take care of himself in a rough and tumble debate. He is a master of invective, with an explosive delivery that sounds like an exhaust pipe emphasizing every revolution of a driving wheel. Not only has he a deal of information on tap at all times, but he has an unflinching wit and knowledge of the men with whom he is dealing. He knows their weak points and when cornered can usually wiggle out by a deftly turned bit of sarcasm, accompanied with a smile and a nodding of the head that reminds one of a big Newfoundland dog that has just scared a poodle into nervous prostration by barking at him.
Senator Gore, the blind senator from Oklahoma, has a style of oratory all his own. He usually starts with his right hand on his left hip, under his coattail, and he will alternate from right to left of him about twice a minute, thus bringing his full face into the range of everybody in the senate chamber frequently. Sometimes he will alternate this mannerism by grasping his desk with his right hand, but he never fails to place his left hand on his left "pistol pocket." His voice is shrill and ringing, and he has yet to be admonished for not speaking loud enough.—Washington Cor. New York Post.

MINISTERS IN STORMY DEBATE

Prof. Foster Dropped From Baptist Conference.

SPEAKERS WERE HOWLED DOWN

Chicago Baptist Preachers in Weekly Conference Take Up Again the Question of the College Professor Whose Writings Have Been Criticized, and a Stormy Session Follows—Hisses, Yells and General Confusion Mark the Meeting.

Chicago, June 22.—Prof. George Burman Foster, of the University of Chicago, whose denial of the divinity of Christ in a recent book has stirred Chicago Baptists to a high pitch of resentment, was dropped from the Baptist ministers' conference of Chicago yesterday afternoon.

Hisses, yells and general confusion made the meeting one of the stormiest ever held by churchmen in Chicago, and it was referred to by one preacher as resembling a political meeting in a rowdy ward.

Speakers who had been howled or hissed down sat with flushed, indignant faces while the chairman pounded for order. The young son of Prof. Foster was present. "It's a shame and unfair," he shouted as he left the hall. Months ago Prof. Foster was asked to explain to the conference why he should be considered a Baptist, Dr. Myers declared, adding that Prof. Foster had refused point blank.

During the excitement motions, counter motions and parliamentary mix-up prevailed. After four hours, however, worn out by exertions and emotions, the preachers adopted the resolution dropping Prof. Foster from the conference.

The conference has not the power to expel him from the church, and while such an event seemed to be desired by those present, no definite plan of action was mapped out.

BLACK HAND STILL BUSY

One of Its Chiefs Fears He Will Be Killed as a "Squealer."

Pittsburg, June 22.—"They will murder me. They will kill me sure," said Orazio Runfola, alleged Black Hand leader here, when told that the rumor had gone forth that he had "squealed" Saturday night after his arrest, putting the officers on the trail of Pepino Galbo of Meadville, who was arrested later.

Runfola was almost paralyzed with fright when he heard that he had been accused in this way, and though he begged the police to announce that he had not told anything, he declined to say who "they" were that he feared so, in case he should gain his liberty.

Cincinnati Man Threatened.

Cincinnati, June 22.—Dan Bauer, member of the city council and proprietor of a concert hall, was surprised with a Black Hand letter when he arrived at the city hall to attend a council session. The letter is in true Black Hand style, but does not make a demand for money; in fact, the writer says he spurns Bauer's "blood money." This is the second missive of the kind received by Bauer within the last two weeks.

THEY MAKE COMPLAINT

Envelope Manufacturers Say Uncle Sam's Competition Is Unfair.

Buffalo, N. Y., June 22.—How to stop Uncle Sam from conducting such an extensive envelope business is the problem with which the newly organized American Envelope Manufacturers' association is wrestling. A large number of manufacturers were present at the organization's first meeting.

Secretary Doris said: "We are simply endeavoring to formulate some plans for remedying the conditions which exist as a result of the constant and continuous extension of the envelope business on the part of the government, which is selling stamped envelopes at prices which are almost ruinous to the trade, and we believe that this competition on the part of Uncle Sam is unfair and unjust."

Mr. Doris denied that the organization was the nucleus of a trust.

Fatal Collision on Southern.

Mt. Carmel, Ill., June 22.—A head-on collision occurred near Belmont, Ill., between Southern Railway passenger trains Nos. 1 and 2. The accident was caused by an error in train orders. Mail Clerk Jackson on Train No. 2 was instantly killed and both the engineers were seriously injured. Several others received minor cuts and bruises. The mail cars were telescoped and the engines were demolished.

Bound Over On Murder Charge.

Bay City, Mich., June 22.—Roland Rich, charged with the murder of his grand mother, Mrs. Christine Corydon, has been bound over for trial. His attorneys offered no testimony in the preliminary examination. All of the evidence on which Rich was held is circumstantial.

MAUDE ADAMS TO BE SEEN AS JOAN OF ARC

Only One Performance in the Harvard Stadium.

Cambridge, Mass., June 22.—Never in the history of the American stage has there been a performance such as that of "Joan of Arc" to be given by Maude Adams in the Harvard stadium tonight. According to those who have witnessed the rehearsals and have grasped the scope and purpose of the play, the only dramatic representation with which it can be compared is the Passion play at Oberammergau.

In a series of splendid dramatic pictures, drawn on a vast scale, Miss Adams will depict the life of the young peasant girl who delivered France from the English invaders in the fifteenth century. All sides of the character of the Maid of Orleans will be shown—her life in her native cottage, the visitation of voices that led her to the saving of her dearly beloved France, her leadership of the French forces to victory and her martyrdom.

The performance will be adequately staged. There will be 1,300 active participants, including about 800 men in armor on horseback, monks, citizens of both sexes, nobles, choir boys, English and French soldiers. The great historic figures of the time will be represented by actors well able to carry out the illusion of reality, and the stage settings and costumes will show the results of an immense amount of historical research.

Miss Adams has had the co-operation of Charles Frohman, the well known manager, in her preparations for representation of "Joan of Arc." All his resources have been drawn upon freely for the success of the play. The purpose of the performance is the raising of money to help in the erection of a new building for the Germanic museum of Harvard university. Only one performance will be given. After the play tonight the company will be dispersed and the properties will be shipped to New York.

INDIANS SEEK ANCIENT HOME

Valuable Lands in Indiana to Be Demanded.

OLD CHIEF BENACK'S CLAIM

Three Sections of Valuable Land in the Old Pottawatomie Tract Near Warsaw Are Claimed On Behalf of Mary Ann Benack, Wife of Old Chief Benack—Contestants Claim That Deeds Transferring These Lands to White Men Were Invalid.

Warsaw, Ind., June 22.—Thomas Topash, a full-blooded Indian from Dowagiac, Mich., has made preparations for starting suit to regain possession of three sections of valuable farm land, which formerly belonged to the Indians in Kosciusko county. The land is the best in the county and would today sell for about $200,000. He represents the interests of Mary Ann Benack, wife of Chief Benack, who played an important part in the early history of the county.

When the white men first came here in the early thirties, the Pottawatomie and Miami Indians were in full possession. They owned all the land. In a treaty in which were represented commissioners on the part of the United States and chiefs of the Pottawatomie tribes of Indiana and Michigan, the Indians gave up all their holdings with the exception of small tracts reserved as homes for the various tribes. This treaty was ratified by the president and senate on Jan. 21, 1833. Among the lands retained by the Indians were eight sections by Chief Benack and three sections on Big Prairie by Mary Ann Benack. The last named tract is the one over which the contest is to be made. The Indians say any deeds made by them were invalid, in that they had no right to sell or in any way dispose of their lands except through permission from the president and the senate. They also say many of the deeds, which now appear on the records, were fictitious.

STATE TAKES A HAND

Governor Marshall Wants Evansville Strike Settled.

Indianapolis, June 22.—Because he believes the strike of the street car men at Evansville and the refusal of the Evansville & Southern Indiana Traction company to consider any offer whatever made by the carmen to adjust the differences is no longer merely a question of private nature, but has assumed public proportions, Governor Marshall has taken the first decisive step yet undertaken to use the power of his office in bringing about a settlement. After a conference with Harry Slough and Charles F. Woerner, state labor commissioners, the governor instructed the commissioners to return to Evansville and to caution the citizens of the place to abstain from all forms of lawlessness and to promise them that everything which can be done by him toward ending the critical conditions there will be done speedily.

SHE WOULDN'T EXPLAIN

Woman Takes Shots at South Bend Lawyer, But Gives No Reasons.

South Bend, Ind., June 22.—A sensation was caused at the city hall when Mrs. Leon O. Mason fired four shots point-blank at John W. Talbot, an attorney and supreme president and organizer of the Order of Owls, a national fraternal organization.

All the shots, which were fired within the shadow of the city hall, went wild and Talbot made his escape by running down the alley.

The shooting was done in the presence of several police officers, who immediately placed Mrs. Mason under arrest.

Before firing the first shot Mrs. Mason exclaimed: "I'll kill!" Neither of the principles will explain the cause of the shooting.

PERU MAN MAY DIE

Elmer Willard Shot in Encounter With Bud Fisher.

Peru, Ind., June 22.—Elmer Willard is in the county jail dangerously wounded as the result of a gun fight, when it is alleged, he started out to "get" Bud Fisher. Instead Fisher was handier with his weapon and shot Willard three times. One of the bullets penetrated the chest dangerously near the heart. Fisher was arrested, but admitted to bail in the sum of $500.

It is said the men had an old grudge against each other for some time. Willard has been in jail for various offenses several times.

Suicide of Old Soldier.

Ft. Wayne, Ind., June 22.—Fred Matty, an old soldier, stabbed himself three times with a short penknife and died from the wounds. He was seventy-four years old and had been an inmate of the county infirmary for a week. He recently bemoaned his fate and despondency probably prompted his rash act.

TERSE TELEGRAMS

LAND FRAUD CASES TO BE LOOKED INTO

Senate Demands Information From Wickersham.

Washington, June 22.—Attorney General Wickersham has been ordered to send to the senate all facts in possession of the department of justice relating to the prosecution of Dr. E. B. Perrin, of Williams, Ariz., on the charge of conspiracy to defraud the government in timber land cases. When a response has been received from Attorney General Wickersham to the order, a session of the full judicial committee will be held and it is possible that the committee may inquire into methods resorted to by the department of justice under the Roosevelt administration in gathering evidence in land fraud cases.

Several days ago members of the sub-committee considering the reappointment of Robert T. Devlin for United States attorney for the northern district of California, requested Mr. Wickersham to send the papers relating to the Perrin prosecution to the senate. He declined because of the indorsement "confidential" placed on them by his predecessor, which he desired to respect. The order to send the data was made to relieve the attorney general of this.

Confirmation of the reappointment of Mr. Devlin has been opposed because of criticism of his course in the Perrin case. Perrin was convicted of the charge brought against him, but upon an appeal the case was reversed and remanded for retrial. The fact was brought out that the conviction had been obtained by reason of perjured testimony given by a witness named Snell, who had been in Perrin's employ.

Gave Their Lives For a Child.

St. Joseph, Mo., June 22.—James O. Lilliger and John Lewis were both drowned in the reservoir of the water works, while trying to rescue Joseph E. Lilliger, the seven-year-old son of James Lilliger. Lewis had been watchman at the reservoir thirty years.

Searching for Missing Husband.

Rock Island, Ill., June 22.—Men are scouring the country about Rapids City, Ill., for Thomas Adams, 60 years old. Adams' wife was found dead in the yard of her home. A trail of blood led from the house to the place where the body was found.

LABOR SAVING DEVICE.

Nearly Human Machine Invented by a Buffalo Man.

Much interest is shown throughout the United States by large commercial houses in the recent invention of Bartow S. Holyneux of Buffalo of his envelope filling and addressing machine, on which he has worked for seven years and which he recently completed. This machine is capable of sorting from a table six different circulars and will also insert them in an envelope, lick the flap and by a pneumatic process seal the same. It then properly addresses the envelope, the corner of which is then licked, after which a stamp is put in place and forced on by the above mentioned pneumatic process (the United States government has issued an order permitting the sale of stamps in strips to be used for this invention), the letters are then conveyed to a counter and are counted and then carried to one of Uncle Sam's mail bags. When the bag is full and closed the counter shows exactly how many letters are in the same.

This machine is capable of turning out 4,000 envelopes and circulars an hour, addressing, stamping envelopes and inserting them in mailing bags and counting them—in other words, will do the work of a hundred girls.

The Want Advertisements Are "Humanizing"

When more people come to use and answer Want and For Sale Advertisements, more people will know each other—

MORE PEOPLE WITH MUTUAL INTEREST WILL MEET—

more people will find channels and opportunities for reciprocal service. Truly, the Daily Republican Want Ads are "humanizing" people—shaming away the scorn of small things, the scorn of "bargaining," of exchanging useful but not used things for useful and usable ones.

Scale Books for sale at the Republican Office. Weigh Blanks of all kinds made to suit every want.

Remember This —

While you are dreaming about a greater Rushville,—and wondering what you can do:

Don't forget—

To buy a home.

To keep sweet.

To talk Rushville.

To knock the knockers.

To talk for the new factory propositions.

Talk up the Rushville Improvement Association.

That it sounded right to hear the council speak of "public spirited citizens" in their electric current "ad."

An automobile factory in Rushville would be going some.

Help organize.

To patronize the Home merchant. He helps you.

To do something with that old tenement or that vacant lot.

To build a house.

To believe in Rushville.

To think how you can help.

To boost the Chautauqua.

To do all you can to get people to trading in Rushville.

That a commercial "day current" electricity proposition helps some.

To tell everybody about our wonderful shipping facilities.

Think how few towns have better lines of railroad than those which intersect here.

The Pennsylvania, Big Four, L. E. & W., and C. H. & D., are all great systems of railroad and the I. & C. is the finest traction line in the State so that our shipping facilities are unexcelled.

That to be public spirited means to work for nothing, for all public enterprises, and pay your own expenses. To wear out sole leather and tramp the sidewalks for weeks. To endure the knocks of all small and narrow persons who desire to hide behind their own criticisms in order to escape making a donation to some public enterprise.

But it is only on account of the public spirit of certain of our citizens, that Factory Movements, Lecture Courses, Men's Big Meetings, Chautauquas and other public interests have been a success in the past. If you haven't the spirit or the inclination to help with public movements for the good of Rushville, don't make attacks on those who unselfishly leave their own business and sacrifice their own interests for the good of the public.

Remember this and do your best to help.

HE WAS JUST CRAZY ABOUT RELIGION

Demented Man Frightened Housewives Asking Them to Read Aloud to Them.

DRIVEN OUT OF CITY GATES

There are all sorts of crazy people, but some are more loony than others. It seems that about nine out of ten are crazy over religion—in fact some people never take to religion until they go crazy. Saturday night, one of those typical religious cranks was in this city and for over two hours made life miserable for the residents of North Morgan street. He had a dilapidated Bible under his arm—they always have a Bible, even if they don't have anything else—and he insisted on pushing his way into the homes of half frightened women and implored with them to read aloud from the Bible for him.

"Just read me one verse," he would beg in a child-like tone, and in many instances the women complied with the request, fearing the wide-eyed individual would do them bodily harm if they refused him. He was getting along nicely until City Marshal Price happened on the scene in response to a phone call and in a few words took all the religion out of the man. He was made to leave the city.

OH PIFFLE! OH SUDS!

The growing "staff of life" begins to show a golden tinge. Soon the merry sickle will sing sweet melodies that will delight the ear and charm the heart of the farmer, who makes it possible for the existence of the famous orchestra.

A Local Greek Does A Marathon

Mike Katsaros of the Greek candy store is well named. At least the first syllable of his last name fits him to a T. Like all other "kats" he delights in killing their sworn enemy, the rat. When Mike is not actively engaged he quietly leaves the place and around in the back sheds and alleys looks up rats. Last night he did a Marathon after a big gray fellow. His system, in inflicting the death penalty is to run the rascals down and step on them. It required Mike but ten minutes to wind the rat and tramp his life out.
